India-Azerbaijan ties

The relationship between India and Azerbaijan has made a full circle and External Affairs Minister Jaishankar's Azerbaijan visit helped the reset of ties strained by support for Pakistan in the Operation Sindoor.

It may be recalled that the relationship between the two countries had soured during Operation Sindoor in May 2025. On May 7, after India began its military strikes in Pakistan, Baku issued a statement saying it was "in solidarity with the people of Pakistan" and condemned "military attacks against Pakistan that killed and injured several civilians".

In July same year, External Affairs Minister Jaishankar told the Lok Sabha that "only three, apart from Pakistan, opposed Operation Sindoor". Azerbaijan, China and Turkey were identified as the countries that had taken positions against India's operation. What's more, the diplomatic fallout was made explicit in Sept 2025, when Azerbaijani President Ilham Aliyev met Pakistani Prime Minister Shehbaz Sharif at the SCO summit in Tianjin, China. According to the Azerbaijani president's own official account of the meeting at that time, Sharif thanked Baku for its political support during the conflict, while Aliyev "congratulated Pakistan on its victory over India". He added that India had attempted to retaliate against Azerbaijan in international organisations in response to Baku's support for Islamabad, but said this did not matter because "brotherly relations take precedence above all".

Editorial By EL Vaidyanathan

Azerbaijan is a major producer of oil and natural gas in the Caspian region. ONGC Videsh has invested over $1.2 billion in the Azeri-Chirag-Gunashli oilfield and the Baku-Tbilisi-Ceyhan pipeline. After buying Equinor's stake in 2024, it holds 2.93 pc of the field and 3.09pc of the pipeline. The field accounts for 37pc of Azerbaijan's oil output. There were reports that India had blocked Baku's application for full membership of the SCO. Nevertheless, India had said that Armenia and Azerbaijan's application was not even discussed at the Tianjin summit due to "time constraints". The two countries have other competing regional relationships. Azerbaijan has close ties with Turkey, which has consistently supported Pakistan on Kashmir while India has developed a defence partnership with Armenia, Azerbaijan's adversary in the South Caucasus (a geographical region on the border of Eastern Europe and West Asia).

The first sign of a thaw came in April, when India's secretary (west) Sibi George visited Baku, the first high-level contact since the conflict in South Asia. The Ministry of External Affairs (MEA)'s readout of those consultations included the fight against cross-border terrorism among the subjects discussed, a pointed reference to an issue at the centre of India's differences with Pakistan.

At the MEA's weekly press briefing, spokesperson Randhir Jaiswal confirmed that security and terrorism had come up during Jaishankar's meetings in Baku. "Yes, security issues, terrorism and the common threats that we face were discussed," Jaiswal said. "Both countries agreed that they must co-operate, collaborate to enhance peace, prosperity and security of their people and also work towards shared challenges that they have. We have a very clear position that disputes should be settled through dialogue and diplomacy," he said . One can definitely hope that the cordial relationship evolved now will strengthen in the months and years to come.

PURI, MUNNAR CHOICE FOR LOCAL TOURISTS

Bangkok, Phuket and Tokyo top destinations for festival travel

NEW DELHI: The festive window, encompassing Dussehra, Durga Puja and Diwali, had sparked a surge in searches for both international destinations and domestic leisure retreats, according to data released by digital travel platform Agoda. Based on searches conducted between Aug 1 and Sept 30 for stays spanning Oct 15 to Nov 30, Bangkok, Phuket and Tokyo topped the list of international cities searched by Indian travellers, while Goa, Puri, Munnar and Udaipur were popular domestic destinations.

Commenting on the same, Gaurav Malik, Country Director, Indian Subcontinent & Indian Ocean Islands, Agoda, said: "The festive period has traditionally been when travel and celebration come together, but the destinations people are considering reveal that there are now various ways to spend this time."

"We are seeing interest span beach holidays, city breaks, cultural destinations and hill station escapes, suggesting that travellers are choosing destinations around the experience they want to have, rather than simply following a conventional itinerary," he added.

Asia remains central to the festive itinerary for international travel, with Thailand, Vietnam and Japan emerging among the most searched countries, recording 55pc, 86pc and 125pc growth in searches, respectively, compared with last year, while Sri Lanka recorded a 262pc year-on-year (Y-o-Y) surge in searches.

At the city level, in Thailand, Bangkok and Phuket registered 65pc and 51pc increases in searches, drawing crowds with landmarks like the Grand Palace alongside coastal experiences. Meanwhile, Vietnam's Phu Quoc grew by 124 pc due to its pristine beaches and night markets and Tokyo saw 109pc growth as travellers aligned their trips with Japan's autumn foliage season.

Closer home, the festive season is prompting travellers to search for nature-led, spiritual and leisure getaways. Perennial favourites like Goa and Udaipur maintained strong momentum, with 43pc and 29pc Y-o-Y growth in searches, respectively.

UAE President Sheikh Mohamed bin Zayed Al Nahyan conferred the honour following a serious incident on Sept 30 aboard flight FZ1073, travelling from Dubai to Tel Aviv. The awards were presented by Dubai Crown Prince Sheikh Hamdan bin Mohammed bin Rashid Al Maktoum, Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Defence.

During the incident, Capt Machchhar was seriously injured when attacked by his co-pilot. Despite his injuries, he managed to open the cockpit door, enabling crew members and passengers to intervene and restrain the attacker. The aircraft was diverted to Tabuk, Saudi Arabia, where it landed safely. The UAE leadership praised the crew's courage, sense of responsibility and commitment to safeguarding human life. The recognition highlights the critical role of aviation professionals in managing emergencies and protecting passengers under extreme pressure.

Capt Machchhar's bravery has drawn international attention, bringing recognition to India's aviation professionals and the dedication of those working to ensure the safety of air travellers worldwide.

It collaborated with three popular New York restaurants, "Chatti", "Junoon" and "Musaafer", for a specially curated "Culinary Journey Through India", giving guests an experience of a "celebration of regional flavours" from across the country.

Consul General of India in New York Binaya Pradhan joined members of the Indian-American community and Americans at the Times Square celebrations. The festivities were a "vibrant celebration of peace, hope and harmony in the heart of New York City. The festivities celebrated the enduring people-to-people ties that bring India and the US closer," the Consulate said in a social media post.

Neeta Bhasin, founder and organiser of Diwali at Times Square and a member of the New York State Asian American and Pacific Islanders (AAPI) Commission, said that the event sought to promote peace, harmony and unity while showcasing India's art, culture and diversity. "This celebration is about peace, harmony and unity. That is the true message of Diwali. And from this largest platform in the world, Times Square, we are showcasing the art, culture, and diversity of India," she said.

I failed in my first driving test in Dubai

How can I rebook for a second driving test and at what cost?

We explain how drivers in Dubai who fail their Roads and Transport Authority (RTA) driving test can rebook a new test, detailing the required mandatory training, costs, booking process and important deadlines.

Failed your Roads and Transport Authority (RTA) driving test? You can book another attempt, but before getting back behind the wheel, you must complete additional driving lessons and pay the required retest fees. In Dubai, learners who fail their RTA road test must complete mandatory practical training sessions at their driving institute before booking another attempt.

Here's how to rebook your driving test, how much it costs and the important deadlines to keep in mind: How to rebook your RTA driving test online? You can book another road test through the official RTA website – rta.ae – or through your driving institute. Visit the RTA website and search for "Apply for Booking and Changing a Driving Test Appointment". Log in using your Emirates ID, passport details or UAE Pass. You will receive a one-time password (OTP) on your registered mobile number. Enter your learning permit application number and date of birth. Select a new test date or change an existing appointment.

Receive your payment receipt and appointment confirmation via SMS and email. How much does an RTA driving test retake cost? The standard RTA road test fee is Dh220, broken down as follows: Knowledge and Innovation fee: Dh20, Total: Dh220. You must also pay for the four compulsory retraining sessions. These charges vary depending on your driving institute. The RTA also lists a VIP driving test service costing Dh2,620. A separate Dh420 instant test service applies to eligible applicants with non-exchangeable licences and those using the Golden Chance route.

How soon can you retake your driving test? After completing the required training, you may have to wait up to 14 working days for a test appointment. You must arrive at least 30 minutes before your scheduled test for confirmation. Can you reschedule your RTA driving test? You can postpone your appointment online or through your driving institute up to 24 hours before the test. You can also move your test to an earlier available date by paying Dh320.

If you miss your scheduled test, you must book another appointment and pay the test fee again. Important RTA driving test rules to remember--- six-month deadline: Your training file will be suspended if you do not take a Knowledge, Yard or Road Test within six months of your last appointment.

Public holidays: Driving institutes may charge additional fees for tests booked during official holidays. After passing: If your driving licence is not issued within one year of passing the road test, you must take an evaluation test. Mandatory lessons: You must complete all required training before booking another RTA test.

I lost my Dubai driving licence in the recent heavy rains. How to get a new licence?

Lost your Dubai driving licence or have a card that is damaged and can no longer be used? You do not need to go through the process of applying for a new licence from scratch. Dubai residents can replace a lost or damaged driving licence online, via the RTA app or at self-service kiosks, paying a fee based on age and any outstanding fines, while retaining the licence's original validity period.

Dubai's Roads and Transport Authority (RTA) allows residents and citizens with a valid driving licence to request a replacement online, through the RTA Dubai app or at a self-service machine. The replacement licence retains the remaining validity period of the original licence.

Here is how the process works: How much does it cost to replace a Dubai driving licence? According to RTA, the replacement fees depend on your age: Under 21: Dh100 + Dh20 Knowledge and Innovation fee = Dh120. 21 or older: Dh300 + Dh20 Knowledge and Innovation fee = Dh320.

You must also clear any outstanding licence fines as part of the process. Visit the RTA website – rta.ae and go to "Apply for or Manage a Driving Licence". Select "Replace Lost/Damaged Driving Licence". Log in using your valid Emirates ID, passport or UAE Pass. Enter the one-time password (OTP) sent to the mobile number registered on your Traffic File. Select the reason for requesting the replacement – lost or damaged.

Check the driving licence information displayed on the screen and confirm the details before issuance. Select how you want to receive the physical card – through an RTA self-service machine or by delivery. Pay any outstanding fines and the replacement licence fees.

Once payment is completed, you will receive your Digital Driving Licence instantly. It can also be accessed through My Docs on the RTA Dubai app and added to an Apple or Samsung Wallet. RTA states that if you do not have a valid Emirates ID, you must first update your Traffic File using your valid Emirates ID before applying for a replacement licence.

If details such as your photograph, name or nationality have already been updated on your Traffic File, the amended information will appear on the reprinted driving licence. You do not need to separately apply to amend the licence details.

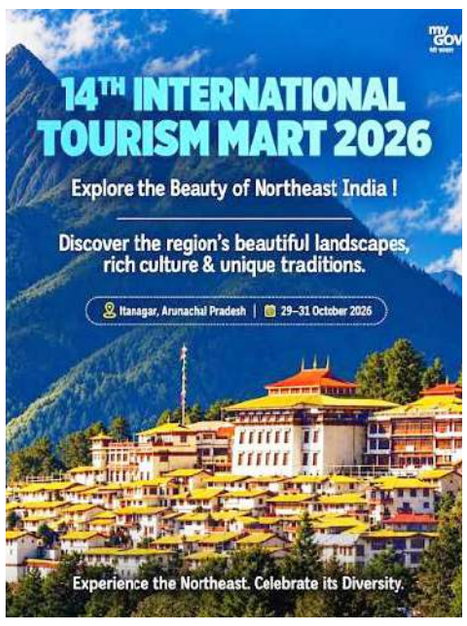

Where can I print my replacement driving licence? If you do not want to wait for delivery, you can print the physical driving licence at an RTA self-service machine or smart kiosk. RTA currently lists smart kiosks at several Customer Happiness Centres, including: Al Barsha, Al Kifaf, Al Manarah, Al Twar, Deira and Umm Ramool.

RTA states that smart kiosks at Al Barsha, Al Kifaf, Al Twar and Deira operate 24/7, while Umm Ramool Customer Happiness Centre itself operates around the clock, including weekends and public holidays. You can also use the RTA Dubai app or website to locate RTA smart kiosks and find the nearest available location. At the self-service machine, enter: Driving licence number, Driving licence issuing authority, Birth year, Reason for reprinting – lost or damaged. Check the licence details, pay the required fees or fines and print the physical driving licence.

How much does delivery cost? Instead of using a self-service machine, you can request delivery: Standard delivery: Dh20, Same-day delivery: Dh35, Delivery within two hours: Dh50 and International delivery: Dh50.
